

Don't miss the rest of our exciting
1995-1996 Season!

Thomas Riccio - American

A burlesque workshop production / original work.
November 2 - 5, 1995

William Shakespeare - A Comedy of Errors

A comedy for the holidays!
December 1- 10, 1995

TUMA Theatre presents "Naam"

In classic Alaskan Native Tradition Style.
February 22 - March 3, 1996

Spring Showcase

A variety show of many talents.
March 9, 1996 - One Night Only!

THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD

Rupert Homes's Tony Award winning Best Musical, Best Book, and Best
Score of the Year - where the audience chooses the ending!

April 12 - 28, 1996 Featuring our Visiting Guest Artist!

And now "Winter Shorts" are included free with your Season Tickets!

1995/1996 Season Tickets

Attach your ticket stub for a Great Value!

____ (#) Adult Season Tickets @ $ 30.00

____ (#) Military / Seniors / UAF Staff @ $ 25.00

____ (#) Student / Children @ $ 15.00

You will receive a calendar to choose when you wish to attend productions

(Glass Menagerie stub required for discounts)

Stop by the Theatre UAF box office to pay by cash or check, or simply mail your application to us as instructed on our season brochure.

Phone 474-7751 to receive a brochure for more details about our season!

PLAYBILL

Presenting

Glass

Menagerie

By Tennessee Williams

Directed by Anatoly Antokin

Produced with permission of the Dramatists' Play Service

Scenic Advisor, Lighting Design
Kade Mendelowitz

Costume Design
Tara Maginnis

Stage Manager
Evette Ashby

October 13 - 22, 1995
Lee H. Salisbury Theatre

Theatre UAF Members

Angel: 101.1 Magic FM

Donors

Gael Baxley
 Ted & May Ann Fathaller
 Gordon Hedahl
 Joy Morrison & Susan McInnis
 Patricia & Gerald Sheilds

Contributors

Ann Dobbs
 Mrs. C.R. Huber
 Julie Scott & John Ryer
 Dick & Jo Scott
 Patricia Turner

Special Thanks

Ingrid Martin, Fairbanks Daily News-Miner	MAGIC FM 101.1
David Duplisis, Magic FM 101.1	KTVF 11
Board of Regents, University of Alaska	FOX 9
David Vickery, UAF School Of Management	KATN 2
Kent Widmayer, UAF School Of Management	KSUA
Tom Foot of IMPACT	KUAC
DeeDee of KTVF

Theatre UAF's production program is income based. Our budget for sets, costumes, props, advertising, etc. is based on revenues from ticket sales, advertisements, and donations. We appreciate your support, and we hope you enjoy our work. We thank our program advertisers for their generous support, and hope you will patronize these community-minded companies and mention that you saw their advertisement in our program.

FOR THE AUDIENCE

PAGERS: Please leave them with the house manager
CELLULAR PHONES: Please leave them with the house manager
SMOKING is permitted outside the building only
WATCHES Please turn off hourly chimes as to not disturb those around you.
 A PUBLIC PHONE is located beside the lobby (through the glass doors)
RESTROOMS located off the lobby and downstairs by KUAC
CHILDREN No babies in arms permitted
PHOTOS No flash photography allowed for safety reasons
GROUP SALES 20% discount call 474-7751

For our shows to begin on time, we request that ticket holders arrive 15 minutes before curtain, and encourage others to purchase tickets before the evening of the event.

Theatre UAF Faculty and Staff

Anatoly Antohin, playwright and stage director, staged many shows at UAF. He received his MFA from the Moscow Institute of Cinematography. Anatoly has won several awards in drama and his plays have been produced in many European countries. In the USA, he has taught and directed at the University of Connecticut, New York University, and Hollins College in Virginia. Last year he was a Fulbright Scholar in Russia.

Amy Fautland, is Theatre UAF's Department Secretary and Box Office Manager. She holds a degree in theatre and education from Biola University. She has a background in both technical theatre and acting. Besides running the box office she is an instructor for the UAF Summer Fine Arts Camp, and the director of The Drama Project, a local drama studio.

Dana Hart, Guest Lecturer, holds degrees in both Theatre and English from UAF. He has been a member of Actor's Equity Association since 1976. He has worked in Radio & TV in NYC and last appeared there Off-Broadway in 1986 in the play called Holy Ghosts. He now lives in Ester and is a member of the Board of Directors for the Fairbanks Drama Association and Fairbanks Children's Theatre.

Gorden O. Hedahl is Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and a professor of theatre at UAF. He holds degrees in speech and theatre from North Dakota, and a Ph.D. in Theatre Arts from Minnesota. He served twenty-two years with the University of Wisconsin System. He directed Noises Off at UAF during the 1993-'94 Season, and will be directing The Mystery of Edwin Drood this April.

Tara Maginnis, UAF Costume Designer, has returned after a year spent in St. Petersburg Russia. Tara has a PHD in theatre from the University of Georgia, and has also studied at San Francisco State, College of Marin and California State Univ. Fresno. She has also written numerous articles on costume and related topics for Theatre Design and Technology, Costume (UK), Theatre Crafts, Ladies Gallery, College Monthly and The St. Petersburg Press. Away from UAF Tara is also designing FLOT's Guys and Dolls and FDA's Fighting Over Beverly.

Kade Mendelowitz came to UAF after teaching at Smith College in Massachusetts. Lighting Designer, Business Manager, Scenic Design Advisor and Technical Director. Originally from New York, Kade loves the variety of arts Fairbanks has to offer. Kade's most recent projects include designing the upcoming FLOT production of Guys and Dolls in November - as well as the lighting for Northstar Ballets' Nutcracker.

Jeannine Patané is Theatre UAF's Costume Shop Supervisor. Originally from New York, she is now a Fairbanks resident. She has been employed by various theatres and costume-related jobs in Fairbanks, including Northern Inua, which is a component of the World Eskimo-Indian Olympics. Jeannine manages to operate her business, Shaman's needle, when she isn't busy at the university.

Thomas Riccio has directed over a dozen plays for UAF including: Tuma Theatre's Qayaaq, The Eagle's Gift, Child from the Seas, and Utetmun. Prior to UAF Riccio was Artistic Director of Chicago's Organic Theatre Company and Dramaturg/Resident Director at the Cleveland Play House. He has directed at New York City's famed La Mama Etc, and others. Over recent years he has worked with the Sakha Natinal Thetre (Yakutsk), The Natal Performing Arts Council (South Africa), Tukak Teatret (Denmark), Center for the Arts (Zambia), Riksteatern and Vastana Teater (Sweden).

This Spring, Theatre UAF is pleased to announce our Visiting Guest Artist: Robert Putnam. He has worked in Fairbanks through the Fairbanks Summer Arts Festival, and will be serving as Choreographer for our production of The Mystery of Edwin Drood. Bob will also be offering specialty courses in Stage Combat and Acting for the Camera. Bob has an extensive and multi-faceted 20 year career in theatre. He has worked as an actor, singer, dancer, director, choreographer and theatre manager - and has one numerous awards including "Best Production" in Atlanta for Legal Education. Theatre UAF is happy to welcome Bob this Spring!

Theatre UAF is proud to help serve the community.

Beginning with last years The Velveteen Rabbit, Theatre UAF began inviting Fairbanks Big Brothers / Big Sisters to previews of select mainstage shows. We feel Big Brothers / Big Sisters does an incredible job of helping support the needs of some of our own Fairbanks youth - and we're helping the way we can. If you'd like to help, or if you're interested in getting more information about Fairbanks Big Brothers / Big Sisters, please call them at 452-8110.

Theatre UAF also donates tickets to our performances to many community-service groups including the Fairbanks North Star Borough Senior Citizen Activity Program. For more information about that group, please call 459-1000.

As you may be aware, last year Theatre UAF was proud to salute the man who formed the Theatre Department at UAF: Mr. Lee H. Salisbury by renaming the Fine Arts Theatre after him. The official renaming ceremony took place Saturday, March 19, 1994 at 8:15 pm, for which we're continuing to work on some great renovations to the "house" of the theatre. If you would like to contribute to this event, please send contributions to Theatre UAF, P.O. Box 755700 / Fairbanks, AK 99775-5700 Attn.: Renovation. There's also still time to take part in our "Buy a Seat" drive - further information about this drive is available at the box office.

ATTENTION
FAIRBANKS BUSINESSES

You can advertise in the next
Theatre UAF Program.
Call Kade at 474-7638 for details.

Cast List

Amanda Wingfield, Mother
Laura Wingfield, Daughter
Tom Wingfield, Son
Tom, The Narrator
Jim O'Connor, Gentleman Caller
Betty, His Fiancee
Father

Georgia Berry
Jenny Cross
Toby Mollet
David Fields
Shannon Luster
Nell Chapman
Alex Beaudrault

Notes From the Director

"Being a 'memory play,' The Glass Menagerie can be presented with unusual freedom of convention," wrote Tennessee Williams in his Production Notes for the play. Well, I tried to keep the balance between this artistic freedom for a director which the script offers and the true-to-life three wonderful characters. There are two Toms in this show, playing one man who are not only looking back at his past but, also, being separated from himself by time, lives and relives his loss of family. Yes, I wanted to move Tom-the-Narrator close to Thomas Lanier (Tennessee Williams' original name). "Yes, some people accuse you of being too personal, you know, in your writing." Behind the character of Laura was writer's own sister Rose, who ended up in a mental institution. Out whole life is a memory play. Our memory is a place where we live, our true home. Memory isn't just our past, but our present and our future - - our place to dream.

First produces over fifty years ago, The Glass Menagerie is a surprisingly "modern" play. Because of Williams' ability to make life of his characters into means of storytelling we can easily relate to the simple plot. The story is for us and about us. We tried not to press the period, the thirties, or the place - St. Louis. The play addresses itself directly to the audience, and the public gives this show a full life. I hope that your imagination and your memories could be awakened by the story of Wingfield's family. Mine were activated to the point that I changed my life. Tennessee Williams' writing was an inspiration for me to write my own first play. I believe that the play would be modern fifty years from now. That's a fate of a masterpiece.

"But I am the opposite of a stage magician. He gives you the illusion that has the appearance of truth. I give you truth in the pleasant disguise of illusion," said Tom in his opening monologue. This statement could be a definition of Theatre. A true magic.

Anatoly Antohin.

Production Crew

Stage Manager	Evette Ashby
Poster Design, Playbill & Publicity	Kade Mendelowitz
Publicity Assistant	Rene Hesseltine
Box Office Manager, Department Administrative Assistant	Amy Fautland
Ticket Sales	Evette Ashby, Alexis Hurlbut, Amy Lynn Kulp
Technical Director	Kade Mendelowitz
Assistant to the Technical Director, Master Electrician	Travis Kulp
Scene Shop / Crew Supervisors	Sarah A.D. Hartley, David Thomas
Production Crew	Evette Ashby, Robert Cheatum, Tony Evans, Alexis Hurlbut, Wyatt Hurlbut, Derek McHenry, Molly Person, Nicholas Scholl, Dan Shaw, Wesley Sterner, Michelle Taylor
Set and Props Running Crew	Alexis Hurlbut
Light Board Operator	Tony Evans
Slide Preparer	David Vickery
Projectionist	Wyatt Hurlbut
Sound Board Operator	Alexis Hurlbut
Costume Shop Supervisor	Jeannine Patané
Costume Shop Staff	Jason Chapman, Jennifer Marks
Costume Construction	Nell Chapman, Jerry Dompeling, Scott McAmis, Travis Wilson
Dresser	Scott McAmis

*Season "T"-Shirts & Mugs are on sale now at the Theatre UAF Box Office!
They're Great Gifts!*

A Little About The Cast and Crew

Anatoly Antohin, Stage Director, is listed on page 15 under Faculty and Staff.

Evette Ashby, Evette is the Goddess of Light! She believes that is all the public needs to know; any more might frighten them! But seriously, Evette is a History / Theatre major. This is her first production at UAF. She recently moved, with husband in tow, from Genteel Virginia to (what their families fear) is the wilderness of Alaska. She hopes to finish a degree program, see another part of the world and do as much theatre as humanly possible.

Alex Baudreault, Father. Alex is a senior at UAF. He is working on a Political Science degree. On weekends he takes dancing classes. In his spare time he solicits Amway products.

Georgia Berry, a longtime Fairbanksan, is a double major at UAF and has been in numerous productions including You Can't Take It With You and The Velveteen Rabbit.

Nell Chapman, is a non degree student at UAF. She loves the stage and coffee. Hates waltzing, writing bio's and speaking in the third person. She will also be performing in Can-Can and The Comedy of Errors and hopes to see you all there.

Jenny Cross, is a Theatre Major at Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut. Currently she is taking a year long hiatus from East Coast insanity while she contemplates Senior Thesis Madness. Jenny has previously performed at UAF in Mainstage productions of Charlotte's Web, Woyzeck, and Frankenstein. Next semester she is planning on studying theatre in Moscow.

David F.G. Fields, Pockets full of tricks, but seemingly unable to remove himself from any two-by-four situation, Dave is a senior in Theatre & English who fancies himself graduating in May. A reprobate from an otherwise moral family, Dave has been in numerous productions such as Woyzeck, You Can't Take It With You, Grease, The Inspector General, and was most recently in Tartuffe.

Travis Kulp, Assistant to the Technical Director / Mater Electrician / Shop Supervisor. EMT-1, Engineer / Firefighter, Hazardous Materials Technician, Confined Space, Swiftwater, and Ice Rescue Certified. Member of Alaska Arson Investigators Association and recipient of Ester Volunteer Fire Department "Firefighter of the Year and Chiefs Award" for 1994. He also finds time to work in the theatre occasionally. He recently designed lighting for SDA's Phoenix Too Frequent.

Shannon Luster, After many years of dedicated work in the theatre, Shannon is proud to make The Glass Menagerie his debut on the college stage. His previous roles ranging from various members of Santa's reindeer in Christmas pageants to a U.S. Ambassador, have allowed him the degree of versatility that is responsible for most of his problems to date. His main theatrical ambition is to perform a Star Trek adaptation of Julius Ceasar, but until it is written Shannon has decided to use acting as a stepping stone to the Oval Office.

Tara Maginnis, Costume Designer is listed on page 15 under Faculty and Staff

Kade Mendelowitz, Scenery and Lighting Designer is listed on page 15 under Faculty and Staff

Toby Mollett, has been acting since the third grade. He has played waiters and doctors and noblemen and wood sprites and sometimes plain old guys with dreams like Tom. And sometimes he wishes he were any of the above; and sometimes he is.

Jeannine Patané, Costume Shop Supervisor, is listed on page 15 under Faculty and Staff.

*Don't Miss The Rest Of Our Exciting Season!
Check out the back of this program for details!*